 - Marital/Relationship Counseling
- Individual Psychotherapy:
 - "Individual therapy involves meeting one on one with a therapist to address emotional, social, and/or behavioral concerns."
 - Services are offered to children, adolescents, and adults.

- Sessions for children and adolescents always require a parent/guardian for the initial session and the parental/guardian involvement in future sessions will be discussed at that time.
- Family Therapy:
 - Family therapy can include all family members (immediate, stepfamilies, and sometimes extended families). The purpose of family therapy is to help families deal with concerns or difficulties that are interfering with how the family functions.
 - Topics that may be addressed include, but are not limited to:
 - Improve communication
 - Resolve conflict
 - Use more effective parenting strategies
 - Create an effective home environment
 - Conquer life transitions (i.e death/grief, divorce, blended families, new baby)
- Marital/Relationship Counseling:
 - Couples experience a range of concerns that interfere with the health of their relationship. Therapists can address concerns for couples at any stage of their relationship.
 - Pre-marital, marital, and divorce counseling is available.
- You have the right to receive a “Good Faith Estimate”, explaining how much your medical care will cost.
 - People providing healthcare are obliged, under the No Surprises Act, to inform individuals who are uninsured of an estimate of their bill for services.
 - Check the website listed above for more information on the Good Faith Estimate (GFE) policy.

Legal Action of Wisconsin – Reentry Legal Services Program

"The Reentry Legal Services Program represents incarcerated people as they approach their release from prison. We assist in applying for disability, health care, and other public benefits. In doing so, we seek to increase our clients' economic stability, provide them with access to health care, and reduce homelessness, relapses in criminal behavior, and other negative outcomes. We receive referrals through the Wisconsin Department of Corrections and work with clients prior to and after their release into the community. If you have questions about this program, please contact the program manager nearest you."

Address and Location:

300 Ohio Street
Oshkosh, WI 54902

Contact Information:

- Phone: (855)-947-2529
- Email: Erica Loomis, Oshkosh Area Program Manager – ell@legalaction.org
- Website:
 - Legal Action of WI Reentry Services Program – <https://www.legalaction.org/services/reentry-legal-services-program>
 - Oshkosh Office – <https://www.legalaction.org/contact-us/oshkosh-area-office>

Hours of Operation: Monday-Friday 9:00 am - 4:00 pm

Important Information:

- Call and walk-in or in-person intake times:
 - “All potential clients may call or walk in to the Oshkosh office any regular business day from 9:00 am - 4:00 pm.”
 - “Because we serve rural counties and the travel times may be very long, we do encourage people to call us before traveling to the Oshkosh office.”
 - This is not a requirement, but individuals should consider calling ahead before arriving at the office.
- Counties served: Adams, Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Marquette, Outagamie, Ozaukee, Sheboygan, Washington, Waushara, and Winnebago.

- “At Legal Action, we believe all people deserve access to basic human needs, like healthcare and safe housing, but many people face significant barriers that would be difficult to navigate without legal help. These barriers are particularly steep at reentry.”
- “We seek to break down the false dichotomy of being labeled as only ‘victim’ or ‘offender’. This binary narrative can dehumanize and stigmatize formerly incarcerated people and prevent them from healing and accessing the services that they need.”
- Another potentially useful service they offer: Center for Drivers License Recovery and Employability
 - More info can be found here: <https://www.legalaction.org/services/center-for-drivers-license-recovery-and-employability>
